Ash Wednesday

HOLY MASS

On Ash Wednesday (18th February 2026,) Holy Mass was solemnly celebrated at Montfort school auditorium. The celebrant of the Eucharistic celebration was Rev. Fr. Joseph Vijay, Assistant Parish Priest. In his homily, Father delivered an inspiring and insightful message, particularly addressing the students of Grade 10 and Grade 12. He encouraged them to approach their forthcoming board examinations with confidence, determination, and steadfast faith in God. Emphasizing the importance of sincere hard work, prayer, discipline, and self-belief, he reminded the students that these virtues form the true pillars of success. The celebration concluded with special prayers and blessings for the students, invoking divine guidance and strength as they prepare to face their examinations with courage and hope.

EDUCATIONAL VISIT TO KEELADI HERITAGE MUSEUM

On 21st February 2026, the Tourism Club students of Montfort School embarked on an enriching educational visit to the renowned Keeladi heritage museum as part of a comprehensive cultural immersion programme. The students were privileged to be accompanied by our distinguished guests from France, Mr. Daniel and Mrs. Chantal, whose presence added a valuable global dimension to the experience. The museum's meticulously curated archaeological findings, rare artifacts, and historically significant exhibits offered profound insights into the antiquity and advancement of ancient Tamil civilization. This experiential learning initiative seamlessly bridged classroom knowledge with real-world heritage exploration, fostering intellectual curiosity, cultural appreciation, and global awareness. The visit stood as a testament to the institution's commitment to excellence and international standards in holistic education.

FAREWELL TO OUTGOING BATCH 2026

On 6th February 2026, Montfort School resonated with a poignant blend of nostalgia and aspirational fervor as it hosted a grand farewell ceremony for the outgoing batch of 2026. The event was graced by the distinguished presence of the Chief Guest Dr. Sathammai Priya, a pre-eminent Tamil motivational orator and Assistant Professor of Microbiology at Cauvery College for Women, Tiruchirappalli, whose eloquent address served as a clarion call for students to navigate their future with resilience and intellectual integrity. The proceedings were meticulously presided over by the Principal, Rev. Bro. Robert, and the Vice-Principal, Rev. Bro. Suresh, whose paternal guidance and benedictions underscored the school's commitment to holistic excellence. The students were exhorted to uphold the Montfortian legacy of service and virtue. As the curtains fell on this momentous chapter, the atmosphere remained thick with the profound realization that while paths may diverge, the values instilled within these hallowed halls will remain their eternal compass.

VWS MUN'26

Cultivating Future Leaders and Diplomats

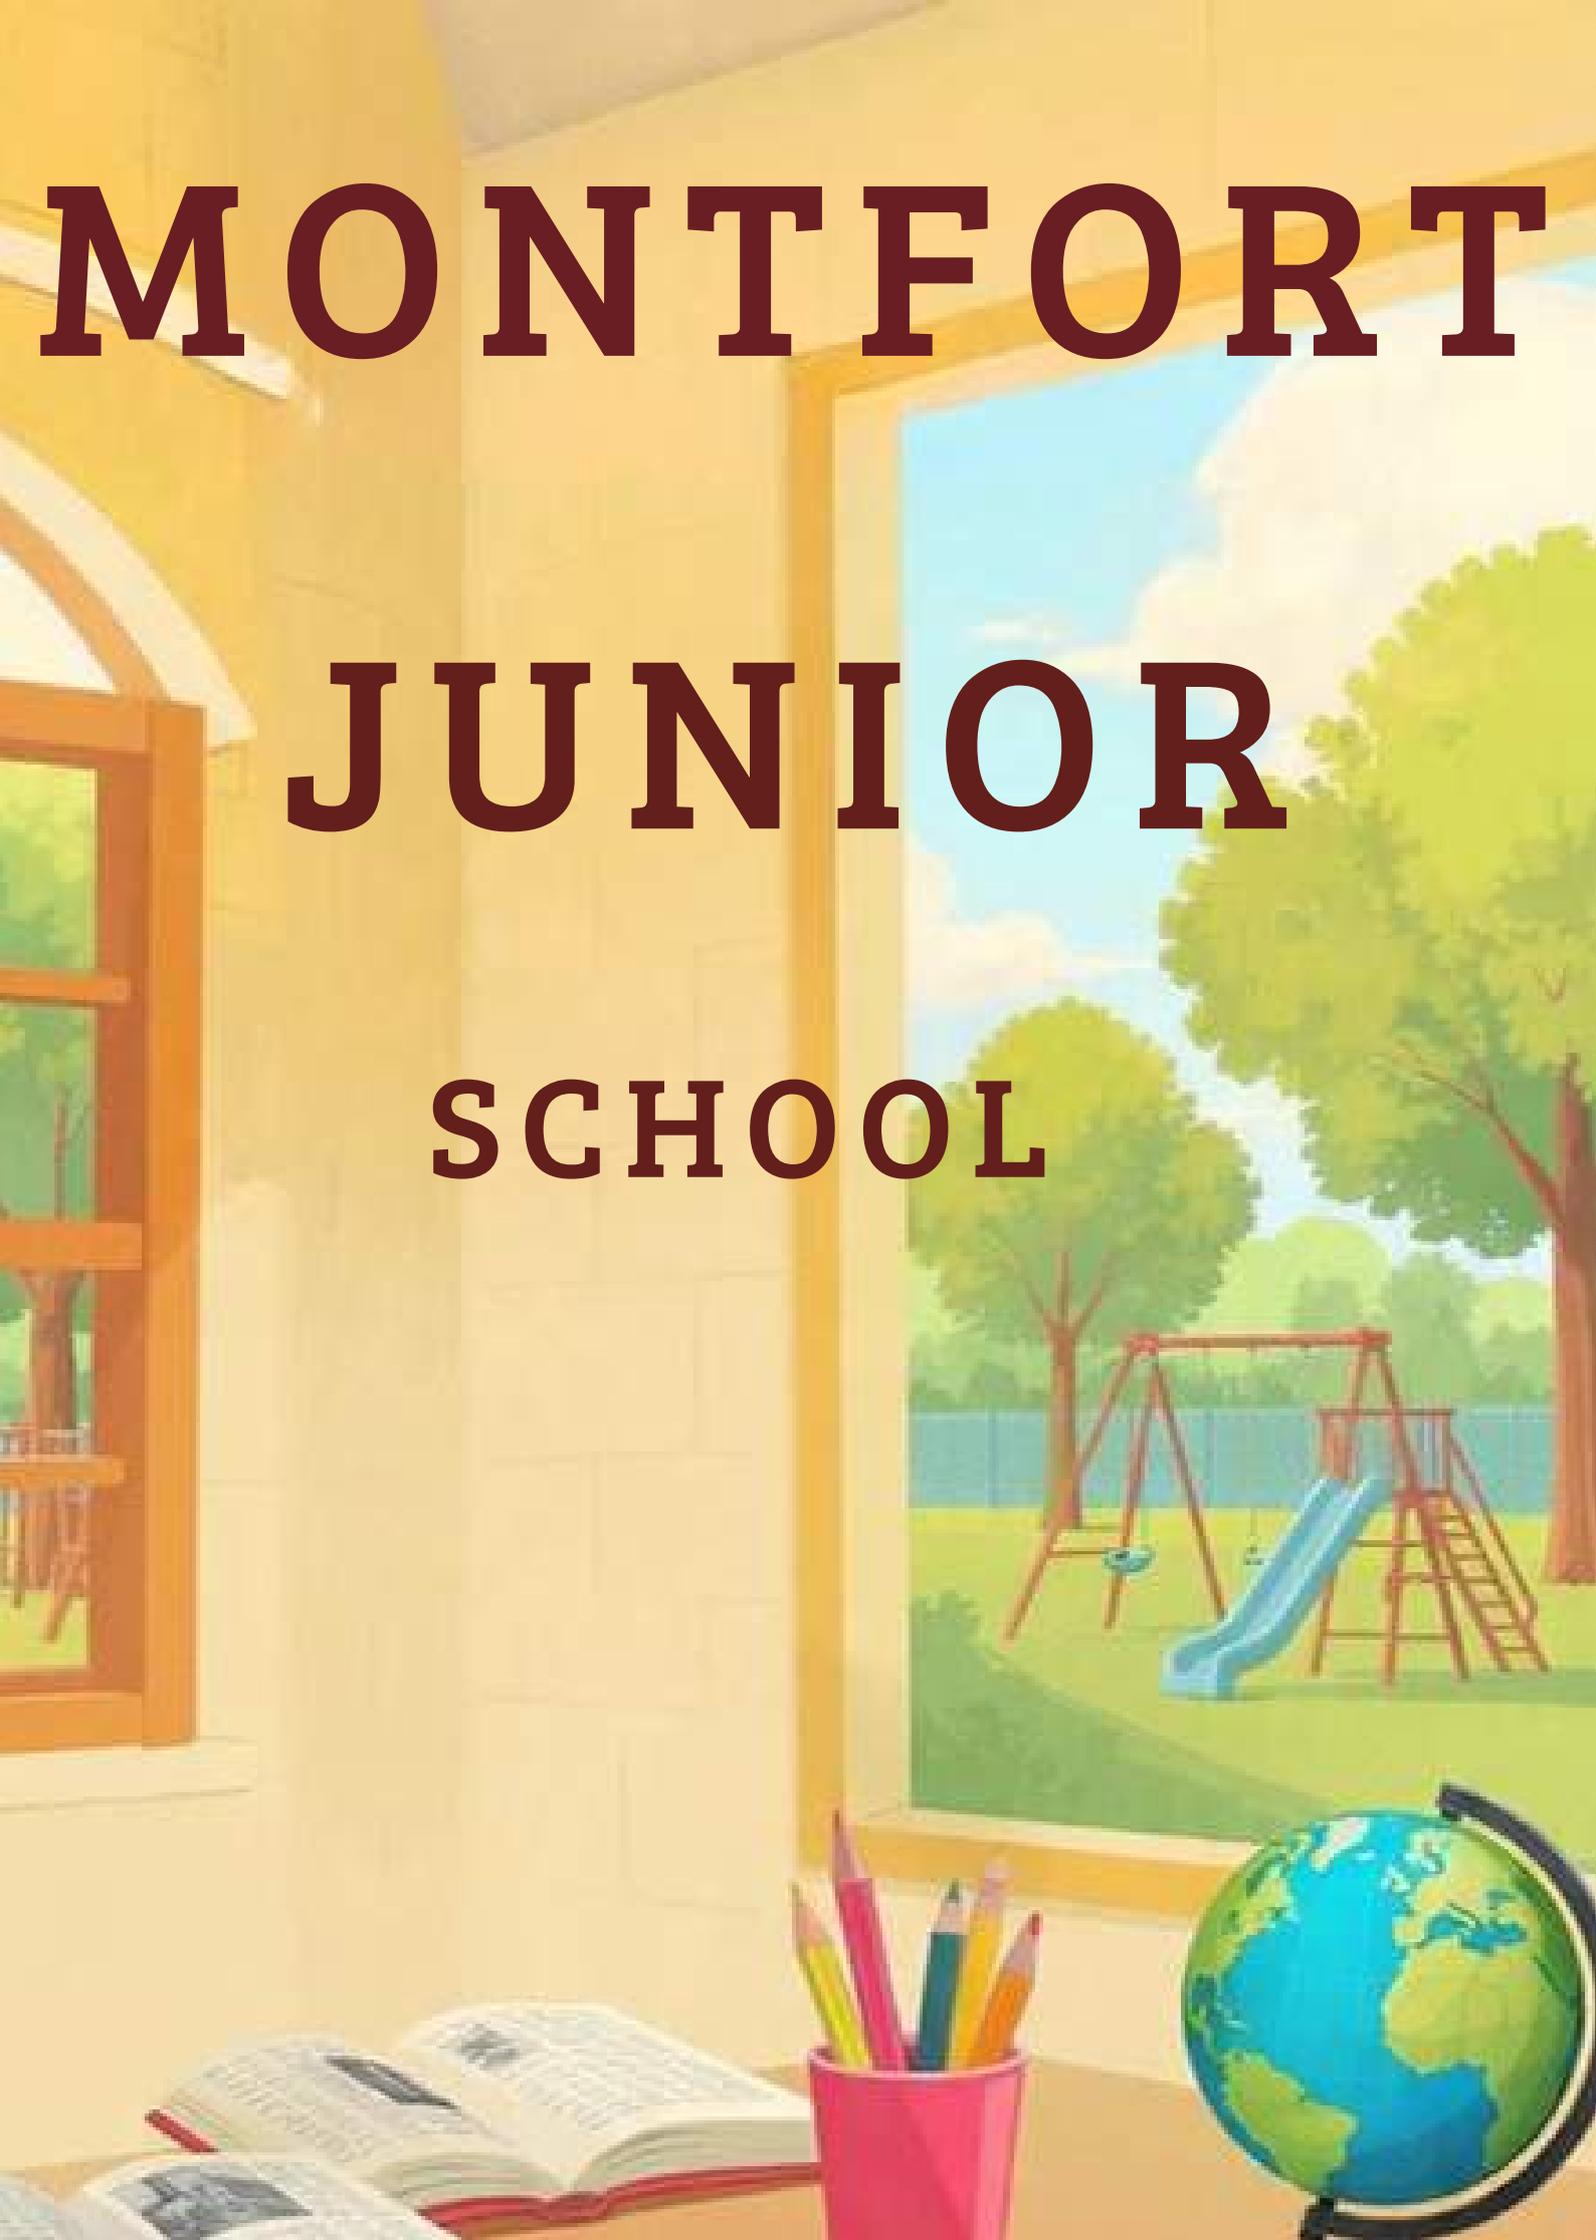

The three-day VWS MUN '26, held from February 13–15 at Vikaasa World School, served as a dynamic arena for diplomacy and global engagement, drawing participants from 15 CBSE schools across Madurai, Salem, Dindigul, and Trichy. Under the guidance of Mrs. Sweetlin Jeba Priya and Mrs. Mangalam, a dedicated delegation of 16 students tackled pressing international issues within key committees including UNODC, UN Women, and the UN Security Council. Through rigorous debates, moderated caucuses, and strategic lobbying, delegates honed their analytical thinking and negotiation skills to draft impactful, solution-oriented resolutions. Our students from various grades won individual achievements as given below:

Meenakshi (8G) and Shreya (8G) received Verbal Mentions, Aneilesh (8G) and Jessica (7G) earned Special Mention Awards for their exceptional preparedness.

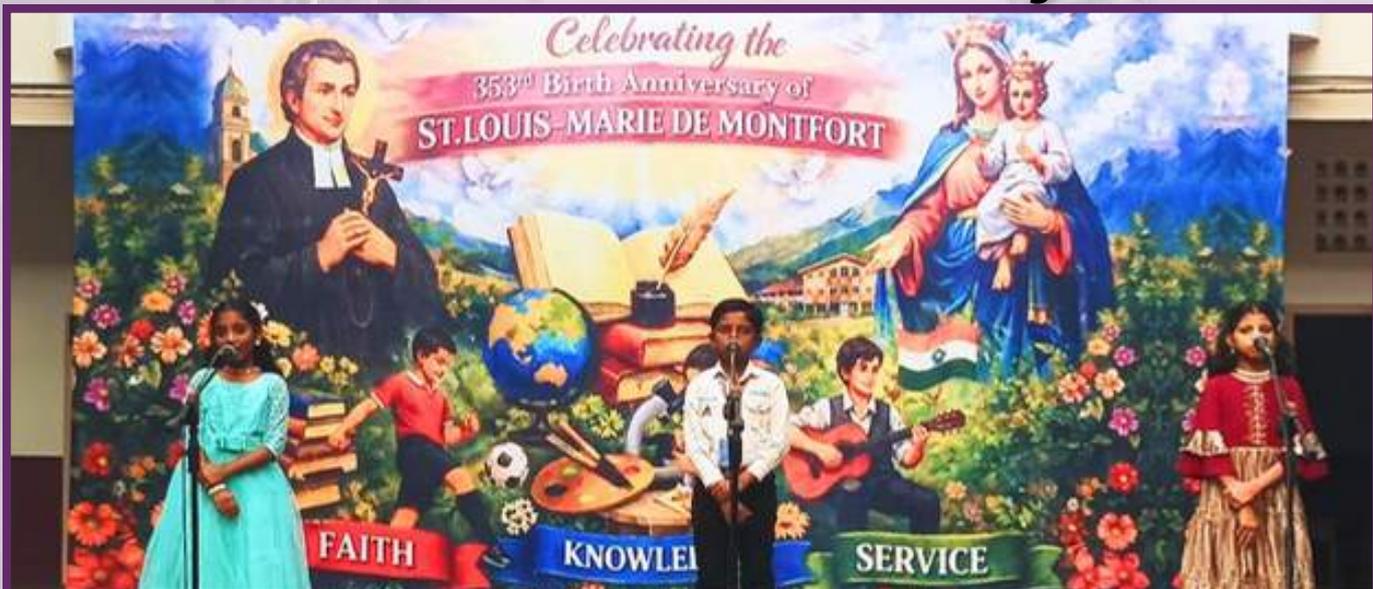

Ultimately, the conference was a grand success, empowering students to become confident communicators and responsible global citizens.
