Dear Students, Parents & Teachers!

Greetings from Montfort!

Hope this message of mine finds you and your family members in fine fettle!

Last academic year has been a roller coaster ride in various ways for many of us, but the unfailing love of God and unending positive vibes of our kith & kin kept our life rolling in hope. Thanks, and praise be to God ever! Standing in solidarity with our universal family amidst this unprecedented and unjustifiable crisis, I express my deep sentiments of grief to those of you who lost your dear and near ones. May their souls find eternal rest!

Montfort with its record of high excellence has been standing upright in providing uninterrupted quality education using every opportunity that came on our way. The trust and thrust of the students and the parents on Montfort have propelled us to give the best by exploring various possibilities. I wholeheartedly appreciate and honour the cooperation of the students and the parents in realizing this high-tech education. Our teachers are the best among many, their hard work, innovation, creativity, sensitivity, openness and availability made the last academic year a great success. A feather in your cap dear teachers!

Fresh year to begin with, with fresh opportunities, fresh prospects and fresh energy. The pride of Montfort is ever without doubt you dear students. We tirelessly frame strategy, design goals and exhibit excellence to mould you to be the person you are meant to be. You are the heart of this institution, we make sure that you are healthy physically, mentally, spiritually intellectually and emotionally. So make use of the time, space and freedom given to you and bring the best of yours. The ball is in your court!

Dear parents, continue to offer us your unrelenting cooperation in helping our children with quality education that equips them to live life to the fullest. In search of bringing this crisis to an end, let's not miss the responsibility of raising our children to the peak they are meant to be. Counting on your collaboration Montfort takes strides in thinking out of the box and providing quality education. Seeking your company in this journey!

Dear Teachers, you are the pillar of Montfort. Your contribution to her standard is highly commendable that can never be restricted with words or emotion. Continue to render your service to Montfort with a no pause for your learning. Never be tired to be creative, innovative and productive as you have been. You are a true source of inspiration to our students.

Happy Learning and Teaching!

Feeling so refreshed to communicate with you all through this message, wish had we met together to share light moments of love and joy, the day is not far but very near. Let's continue to pray for each other and united in spirit let's offer our fervent prayers for the universal family to restore a healthy, happy and hearty life. Be safe, strong and positive!

God Bless!
